mittee, consisting of Luther Jones, chairman, Ralph Freeman, finance director, and Lou Betner,
W. P. Hill, Joe Freedlund, Al Kierman, Arthur Wells, and Jameson, are canvassing Belle Glade for public donations to the Rotary sponsored Christmas tree and basket. All Belle Glade business men will be contacted. Donations totaling $150 have already been made, according to Luther Jones.
This amount does not include an amount of $25 donated to the newly white population and $10 for the colored population by the American Legion Post 20 of Belle Glade. The amount to be given to the colored needy will be presented to the colored P. T. A.

The Christmas tree fund is an annual affair, sponsored this year by the Rotary club assisted by the various public organizations of Belle Glade. The celebration for the children of Belle Glade will be held at the American Legion hall Friday, December 23, when gifts will be distributed. Two large trees will be included among the various decorations. About 50 children were taken care of last year with approximately 600 expected this year. All children up to the age of 12 are invited to attend the celebration.

Christmas food baskets will be given to needy families in the community as part of the work. Any private persons wishing to make donations are urged to contact Rev. J. P. Jones or Jameson in order to avoid duplication in the presentation of gifts.

Garden Club Met Tuesday

The Community Garden Club held its December meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Jernigan in Canal Point.

Mrs. T. M. Dechman, president, presided at the meeting and announced that the board had suggested limiting the membership to forty members, this to be voted upon at the January meeting. At each member was urged to make Christmas wreaths and to display them as prominently as possible.

Mrs. C. G. Coburn and Mrs. G. L. Sims were in charge of the program for the afternoon and discussed interesting material decorations for the ensuing holiday season.

The guest speaker for the occasion was Dr. Motz, biologist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. He gave a delightful talk on "Gardens I Have Seen."

Dr. Motz brought out the fact that being is one of the most ancient expressions of the human race. He classified gardens thus:

1. "Edible" gardens. These gardens have no practical use but are very beautiful. Examples are found in the Arctic countries where the people have window sill gardens consisting of gayly colored pots of geraniums, cacti, etc.

This type of garden can be found as far south as Spain.

2. Conservatory gardens: These are gardens principally for the conservation of plants which are becoming extinct. Such a one is found on the island of Dominica where there is heavy rainfall and a rich soil. Beautiful tropical trees and shrubs of all kinds are conserved in this garden. This type of garden is useful as well as ornamental. Cuba and Boston have such gardens also.

3. Scientific gardens: Beauty, science and utility are all combined in this type of garden. Such a one is found in Brussels, Belgium, where there is a large collection of orchids. In Leningrad, Russia, there is a scientific garden where rare plants brought into Russia for centuries from other countries are conserved.

4. Utilitarian garden: Such gardens are found in Porto Rico and also in the Pacific Islands where sugar cane is planted in different colors on a small scale, possibly just a few rows beside a home to tend color and be useful as well.

Dr. Motz particularly urged the members of the club to utilize our native plants for beautifying our lawns. In doing so we would conserve our native growth and, too, create a thoroughly natural background for our homes.

Final 1938 Meet Of Mission Society

Mrs. J. E. Cochran, Sr., treasurer of the Methodist Missionary Society, reported at the final meeting of the year, held Monday afternoon at the church, that out of $327.13 collected during the year, $135.43 had been spent on outside missions and the balance for local purposes. Beginning with a balance of $94.82, the society ended the year with $14.22 in the treasury.

The president, Mrs. A. Hansen, presiding, thanked Mrs. Fred L. Martin, Jr., for conducting the special services during the week of prayer, and the officers under her for their cooperation during the year.

Mrs. L. L. Shirley, mission study chairman, reported an increase in attendance to the mission study classes. Mrs. Hudson gave a Christmas contribution of $2 to the underprivileged children fund. A donation was voted for the settlement house in Key West.

It was decided to provide Christmas baskets of groceries and used clothing for the needy. Mrs. Hansen gave the president's annual report and Mrs. Martin led the devotions.

Henry, who visited her mother, Mrs. Mary Roberts.

Everglades Federal Savings and Loan Association Shows A Healthy Growth

Deposits Up to $5,000 Are Fully Insured By F. D. I. C.

(This is the second of a series of articles describing the development of some of Belle Glade's best known business organizations.)

Everglades Federal Savings & Loan Association

Early in 1933 some men with vision for the development of the Everglades became interested in organizing a Federal Savings & Loan association. These men worked hard to get the necessary money together to establish an institution of this kind, and on December 13, 1933, Chapter No. 47 was issued to the Everglades Federal Savings & Loan association of Belle Glade. On July 27, 1934, this association became a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Winston-Salem, and since January 2, 1935, all savings accounts in the Everglades Federal Savings & Loan association up to Five Thousand Dollars, have been insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance corporation.

The first Board of Directors elected was composed of C. E. Riedel, H. D. Beck, Frank L. Franz, W. G. Stang, Hugh J. Bratley, L. C. Betner, K. E. Laiz, G. M. Helmsman and A. E. Kirshman. The assets of the newly organized Everglades Federal Savings & Loan association was less than Ten Thousand Dollars, today the assets are nearly Eighty Thousand Dollars. The association operates within a radius of fifty miles and has helped scores of people to buy a home of their own and others to enlarge and modernize theirs. Savings insured in the association are fully insured up to Five Thousand Dollars, and savings accounts can be started with as small an amount as $1.00 and can be added to at any time and in any amount that one wishes. This money is withdrawable at any time, and if the amount withdrawn is $100.00 or less, no delay is experienced in getting your money. The association has paid 4% annually on all savings that have been invested with it. Both savings investments and income from dividends are exempt from the Everglades Federal Savings & Loan association very attractive.

Present officers and directors of the association are C. E. Riedel, president; Arthur Wells, vice president; H. J. Bratley, secretary-treasurer; A. E. Kirshman, W. Hooker and Herbert D. Beck, directors.

Big Saving Shown To Customers When Power Is Reduced

Reduction In Line With Policies of Fla. Power & Light Co.

MIAMI, Dec. 15.—(PNS)—Making its seventeenth rate reduction since 1931, the Florida Power & Light company, gave its thousands of Florida customers a dose of pre-holiday gift, with benefits affecting both commercial and residential users of electricity.

A few concrete illustrations will show something of the saving that may be anticipated by various classes of consumers. The minimum charge itself has been reduced from $1.50 to $1.25 so that even the smallest consumer will save not less than 25c each month. The average small consumer who uses approximately 30 kilowatt hours a month would find his bill reduced from $2.85 to $2.33. However, the bulk of company customers use around 300 kilowatt hours a month. Under the old rate scale was costing $10.75 while under the reduced rates costs only by $8.78.

The reduction which the Florida Power & Light company is making its customers throughout Florida is in line with its policies ever since it has been operating in the state, of giving the public a maximum of service at the lowest possible cost.

The company has been called upon to maintain its service in the face of hurricanes which have destroyed hundreds of miles of cost-ly lines, poles and other equipment, and depressions have reduced their own revenues as they have everyone else. It is also incumbent on the company to maintain decent wage rates and working conditions for its employees, pay a stable share of city, state and federal taxes and to do its full share toward the maintenance of the Chamber of Commerce, Red Cross and many other civic and charitable organizations.

All in all the Florida Power & Light company has been very fair to the public it serves, and has consistently given the best possible service for the least amount of money.

Over 300 Florida Junior high school students of Florida will receive cash awards of from $2 to $100 next week when checks covering prizes in the state wide "Sugar Essay Contest" are mailed to winners congressional district and the state at large. Prizes totaling over $1,000 were offered by the United Corporation of Clewiston.

Discuss Seed Law Belle Glade Meet

A meeting of about thirty growers, seedmen, representatives in the state legislature, county agents and experiment station workers was held in Belle Glade on December 8. County Agent Mounts presided as chairman for the meeting. Mr. H. L. Lyons, chairman of the legislative committee of the state seed council, was present as were also other members of the state seed council.

The discussion at the meeting concerned the establishment of a state seed law which would be acceptable to growers and seedmen, and particular attention was given to the problem of seed borne diseases of beans. Dr. G. R. Towns discussed the occurrence of halo blight and suggested that some type of inspection and certification service should be established to improve the quality of bean seed. Growers and seedmen expressed their opinion freely. There was general agreement that a seed law is needed and that if properly framed it would benefit the seedmen as well as the growers. The legislative committee of the state seed council will draft a law to present to the legislature at its next session.

At night the tower of the New York $350,000 building at the New York World's Fair will be a golden shaft surmounted by a crown of jewels. Amber floodlights will illuminate the tower while the word, "Florida" on each side will appear in glowing letters against a dull purple background. The effect of a great crown glittering high in the air is achieved by ultra violet light rays on fluorescent material embedded in the stucco.

Theatres

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

"That Certain Age," Deanna Durbin's latest starring production, comes to the Everglades theatre in Belle Glade Sunday and Monday.

The picture is the fourth to come from this remarkable singing youngster who has made screen history ever since she first appeared in "Three Smart Girls" some two years ago.

Cast in a supporting role in "Three Smart Girls," the production was heavily starred before Universal studios realized they were in possession of a wonder-child.

Now realizing what she had, the producers next surrounded her with a cast which included the great Stanislavski, Adolphe Menjou, Misha Auer, Alice Brady and Eugene Pallette. The result has been proclaimed: "100 Men and a Girl" was one of the finest pictures ever made.

Then followed "Mad About Music," in which she had Marshall and Gail Patrick in support. Its reception surpassed even those of the previous hits in enthusiasm and acclaim.

Now comes "That Certain Age," with Deanna starring in a cast which includes Melvyn Douglas, Jackie Cooper, Irene Rich, John Halliday, Juanita Quigley, Jackie Searle, Charles Coleman, Nancy Carroll and Peggy Stewart.

In musical richness, it contains according to advance preview reports, the same musical treat which was such an integral part of the previous offerings.

Jimmy McHugh and Harold Adamson, who have written most of Deanna's original songs for the screen, penned three numbers for the singing star. These are "My Own," "Be A Good Scout" and "You're as Pretty as a Picture."

And, in addition, Deanna sings two classical selections, "Les Filles Du Chateau" by Leo Delibes, and Giuseppe "Romeo and Juliet Waltz," from the opera.

"That Certain Age" will present Deanna as a fifteen-year-old girl undergoing her first pangs of school-girl romance when she falls romantically in love with a man many years her senior. The plot is more comely than any of the previous stories, but it has the same heart-interest and stirring emotional qualities which have distinguished all of her pictures.

The director of "That Certain Age" is Edward Ludwig, counted one of the most rapidly rising young directors of Hollywood. Joseph Eastman, who has produced all of Deanna's pictures, acted in the same capacity on "That Certain Age." The story was an original by Hugh Herbert, was developed into a screen play by Bruce Manning.

Planning Board Is Rounding Out Year Under Geo. G. Gross

Year's Work Shows Great Deal of Accomplishment

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 15.—The setting sun on the last day of this month will mark the close of the first year George G. Gross has served the state as executive secretary of the State Planning board. It has been a year which has been a great deal of accomplishment for the betterment of the state, but that is even more important, it has been a year in which the foundation has been laid for greater accomplishments.

When Governor Cox appointed Gross as executive secretary of the State Planning board, the need for an efficient planning agency had become startlingly apparent. Six months inactivity on the part of the State Planning board had resulted in many of the county planning agencies either ceasing to function or in functioning in a haphazard manner.

The greatest task he faced when he went into office on January 1, 1938, was the reorganizing of the 67 county planning agencies of the state. On his first visits he found that each local agency had its own views as to its sphere of action; and he was continually asked this question: What is the use of planning when we have no money? This made it necessary for him to sell them the idea that the less money they had to spend, the more they needed planning so that what they did have would not be wasted on non-essential projects.

A considerable portion of the board has been devoted to the collection of basic data, which is an essential step precedent to the formulation of plans and which greatly benefits state and local governments and private enterprises.

A tremendous amount of data has been brought together in the more than fifty reports released by the Planning Board, much of which has never before been available, or only in piece-meal form.

Now for the first time it has been possible to appreciate the many relationships existing between what have heretofore been considered different kinds of facts. The planning board has had an integral part in the program of the WPA. A majority of its surveys have been operated as units in either regional or nation-wide studies advocated and supervised by the National Resources Committee or other federal department, and assistance has been extended to 54 county planning commissions in the solution of local problems.

And For The People

In our newspaper you caption, "Stop the Slaughter." Well, here is another one: I don't think it is out of the way to estimate that there is during the season an average of 75 negro fights per month in this Lake district—fights, in which are used weapons such as knives, beer bottles, rocks, ice picks, clubs and guns, pistols, etc. Such negroes are of the type, who have marital considerations and will not pay what they owe if credited with no consideration for others in any and every way. Surgical attention is practically never paid for, showing entire lack of appreciation; their money rather goes into the maintenance of jukes with ribald, drunken amusement.

Negroes have no fear of the law, but seem to be amused at court procedure; they fair better in jail than out of it. This trend of mind is not to the country and state is quite obvious who own or rent—pay for all this and no maybe! Criminals strenuously keep clear of Canada and the state of Delaware because all criminals are tagged in addition to the sentence and fine or both. In other words the whip has far more deterrent influence than the law. The only way to control all this savagery is by establishing whipping posts in every town around Lake Okechobee. So let's take this matter with the governor of the state and force these savages to have entire respect for law and order and civilization. Do you understand? I don't think it is out of the way to estimate that there is during the season an average of 75 negro fights per month in this Lake district—fights, in which are used weapons such as knives, beer bottles, rocks, ice picks, clubs and guns, pistols, etc. Such negroes are of the type, who have marital considerations and will not pay what they owe if credited with no consideration for others in any and every way. ## Bourne Is In Patent Fight

Dr. B. A. Bourne, sugar cane agronomist and head of the research department for the United States Sugar corporation, was successful in proving his patent rights to certain new varieties of sugar cane invented, developed and patented by him and was awarded the decision in the case of certain state departments who sought to take these patent rights in a suit heard by Circuit Judge Geo. W. Whitcomb in Port Myers.

The final decree dismissed the suit brought by the State Board of Education and the State Board of Control against Dr. Bourne.

The state attempted in the suit to prove that the new varieties of sugar cane were invented, developed and patented by the state. However, Dr. Bourne was successful in proving that the varieties were invented by him before he accepted employment with the state and were patented nearly two years after he left the state's employ.

Farm Markets Are Used As Models In Many Other States

Recent Visit of Agricultural Officials Stimulates Action

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 15. — (FNS)—William L. Wilson, director of the Florida Orange Festival, states that since the visit of agricultural commissioners who toured the state last month following their annual convention in Miami, he has received numerous inquiries concerning the operation of such markets in Florida.

During their stay in Florida, these commissioners from other states were given an opportunity to visit several markets, while Commissioner Nathan Mayo and they were keenly interested in the results achieved.

In a statement to the press following his return to South Carolina, Commissioner J. Roy Jones said: "90 percent of our meeting was devoted to the matter of state-owned farm markets and the commissioners of the states which do not have these markets determined to recommend that they be established. South Carolina is one of the states that does not have them and I will recommend that we provide some of these markets in strategic points in their state."

So successful has been the operation of Florida's state-owned farm markets that other states turn to Florida as a model in adopting plans for the establishment of similar farm markets in their states.

Industrial Nursery For Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 15. — (FNS)—One of the first "industrial nurseries" to be established in connection with any American factory will be dedicated at a cigar factory here some time during June, 1939, the Chamber of Commerce has announced, asserting that Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt will be asked to lead in the formal opening of the nursery. Many married women, some with small children, are employed at the plant, and the nursery is being established to permit these women to work with the assurance their young-sters are being well cared for. Nurses and physicians will supervise the youngsters during working hours.

TAX COLLECTIONS UNUSUALLY GOOD

State and Palm Beach county tax collections during November were exceptional, according to Harry Taylor, collector of O. Spruiell. He announced November collections of $896,184.78 from a real estate roll of $1,877,057.64, compared with collections of $868,958.74 during the same month of last year. The increase for that year amounts to $27,226.04.

Records kept by E. C. Ramsey at the collector's office showed intangible personal property collections through last Saturday of $2,055,710 on a roll of approximately $19,000. Collection of intangible property taxes for the same month of last year totaled only $92,172.73.

HENS SPEAK AT CONGRESS

Four animated hens will tell the public the advantages of living in Florida while playing bridge at Florida's exhibit at the World's Poultry Congress in Cleveland July 28 to August 7, according to Earl W. Brown, manager of Florida National Exhibits.

The hens, mounted by J. E. Wallace, exhibits ornithologist, will chatter as they play through the aid of an automobile record-playing device.

One will say, "Conditions in Florida are so favorable for poultry that I've already laid more than 300 eggs so far this year so I have plenty of time to play bridge."

Another will say, "Yes, it is much better in Florida than up north where you have to lay eggs in snow banks."

And so on!

What about that husband who had a wife so ugly that he took her with him rather than have to kiss her goodbye?

Jobless Benefits Will Be Paid After First of The Year

Many Workmen Being Trained To Execute Office Duties

In preparing for the payment of "jobless benefits" to eligible unemployed Florida workmen starting January 1, the entire field force of the Unemployment Compensation division, together with the recent appointees of the field force, have been called to Tallahassee for a week of intensive schooling on benefit procedure.

The classes will be under the supervision of Laurence S. Rickard, chief field advisor of the division, assisted by Dorothy Bailey, field representative of the United States Employment Service, Washington, D. C.; E. T. Anderson, field representative, Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, Social Security board, Washington, D. C.; Wendell C. Heston, chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission; Harold C. Wall, director Unemployment Compensation division; Dr. Foss A. Hathaway, director of the State Employment Service; Judge John P. Mack, chief attorney; and other department heads.

With less than a month in which to prepare for the payment of benefits, the Unemployment Compensation division is working at top speed to perfect its organization in anticipation of the thousands of claims for jobless insurance expected to be filed in January.

"We are attempting to do in a few days what has taken other states months to accomplish," Wendell C. Heston, chairman of the commission stated, "and having our personnel thoroughly familiar with the procedure to be used in paying benefits, we expect to be able to pay all claims for benefits with a minimum of delay."
